

Cookies Policy

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Our website uses cookies.
- 1.2 By using our website and agreeing to this policy, you consent to our use of cookies in accordance with the terms of this policy.

2. Credit

- 2.1 This document was created using a template from Docular (<https://seqlegal.com>).

3. About cookies

- 3.1 A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is stored by the browser. The identifier is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server.
- 3.2 Cookies may be either "persistent" cookies or "session" cookies: a persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.
- 3.3 Cookies may not contain any information that personally identifies a user, but personal data that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.

4. Cookies that we use

- 4.1 We do not use any cookies ourselves. However, cookies are used by our service providers and can be seen below.

5. Cookies used by our service providers

- 5.1 Our service providers use cookies and those cookies may be stored on your computer when you visit our website.
- 5.2 We use Google Analytics. Google Analytics gathers information about the use of our website by means of cookies. The information gathered is used to create reports about the use of our website. You can find out more about Google's use of information by visiting <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/> and you can review Google's privacy policy at <https://policies.google.com/privacy>. The relevant cookies are: _ga, _gat, _gid.
- 5.4 We use a Twitter 'feed' on our website. Using the feed, Twitter collects information about the users and use of our website. The information is used to personalise Twitter advertisements and to analyse the use of our website. To find out more about the Twitter pixel and about Twitter's use of personal data generally, see the Twitter cookie policy at <https://help.twitter.com/en/rules-and-policies/twitter-cookies> and the Twitter privacy policy at <https://twitter.com/en/privacy>. The Twitter cookie policy includes information about controlling Twitter's use of cookies to show you advertisements. If you are a registered Twitter user, you can adjust how advertisements are targeted by following the instructions at <https://help.twitter.com/en/safety-and-security/privacy-controls-for-tailored-ads>.

- 5.5 We use Adobe Typekit to provide fonts for our website. This service uses cookies for keeping track of what fonts. You can view the privacy policy of this service provider at <https://www.adobe.com/privacy/policy.html>. The relevant cookies are: p.gif.

6. Managing cookies

- 6.1 Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies and to delete cookies. The methods for doing so vary from browser to browser, and from version to version. You can however obtain up-to-date information about blocking and deleting cookies via these links:
